

Emily

It's a fright.

I want to watch the thing which I do not want to watch.

I want to know the thing which I do not want to know.

I want to touch the thing which I do not want to touch.

It is human instinct.

Concept

Almost all people feel fear and do not want to approach and do not want to turn eyes.

...I give such space-time value.

Background

I watched the dream; I make friends with a ghost and, at the time of geocide, I part from her. This event was the opportunity when I intended to make this work.

I become the feeling of the ghost, and want to think; thought so.

Story

Emily spent every day in loneliness.

I was the only friend of such her.

One day, in order that I might make a photo book of her and her favorite place, I had a camera and decided to go to her favorite place with her.

A few days later, when I watch the photograph which oneself took...

I knew Emily's secret.
